

Montpellier

By: Amanda T. Broadwater
French 2 pd 2

Basic's

- Montpellier is in Hérault, Languedoc- Roussillon.
- Old, small, compact city.
- Beautiful Architectural buildings.
- Streets are narrow.
- Plenty of attractions.

Places

- The Faculté de Médecine de Montpellier.
- The oldest running University hospital in the world since 1360.
- Cathedral has a memorial of the Bishop of Montpellier.
- Musée d'Anatomie displays all sorts of revolving things in bottles.

Famous People

- François Rabelais (1493-1553) Studied medication
- Nostradamus (1503-1566)
- Frédéric Bazille (1841-1870)
- Juliette Gréco

Population

- 260,000 people. (2011)
- 60000 made up of college students.

University

- Montpellier University has remained prominent on an international level as one of the great universities.
- It is a member of the Coimbra network, which brings together some forty ancient European universities; of the Latinus network, which brings together the higher education establishments of the Latin world.

Basic Facts.

- Le Corum has been used as a conference center.
- Montpellier is just an hour away from the Mediterranean Sea.
- Montpellier is a hilly city near the river Lez.
- Montpellier has statues of royalty, wealthy merchants, and notable doctors.

Top 10 hotels.

- Hotel du Parc.
- Le Jardin Des Sens.
- Suite Novotel Montpellier.
- Residentiale Montpellier.
- Mercure Montpellier Centre.
- Hotel du Parc Euromedcine.
- Pullman Montpellier Antigone.
- Novotel Montpellier.
- Best Western hotel Le Guilhem.
- Campanile.

Top 10 restaurants.

- Bains.
- Jardin Des Sens.
- Roule Ma Poule.
- Grenier Savoyard.
- Maison De La Lozère.
- Boeuf Agile.
- Cafeteria Flunch.
- Verdi.
- Cuba Cafe.